MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION OF FUND PERFORMANCE (unaudited) KraneShares Bosera MSCI China A Share ETF

KraneShares Bosera MSCI China A ETF

The KraneShares Bosera MSCI China A Share ETF (the "Fund") seeks to provide investment results that, before fees and expenses, correspond to the price and yield performance of the MSCI China A Index (the "Underlying Index").

The Underlying Index is a free-float adjusted market capitalization weighted index that is designed to track the equity market performance of large-cap and mid-cap Chinese securities ("A Shares").

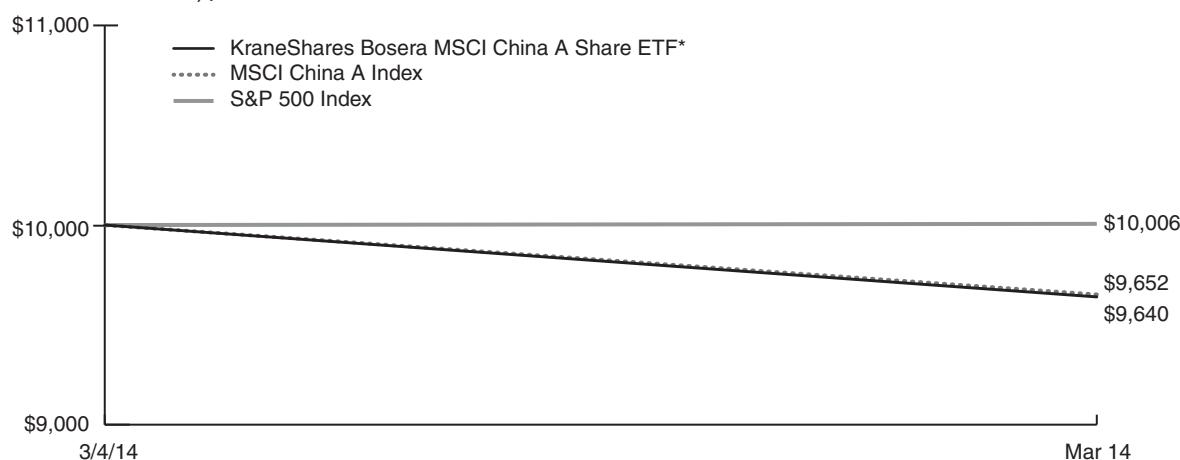

The S&P 500 Index is a market capitalization weighted composite index of 500 large capitalization U.S. companies.

By the fund's fiscal year end on March 31, 2014 (the "reporting period"), the Fund decreased 3.60%, while the Index decreased 3.48%. The Fund had a net asset value of $30.00 per share upon commencement of operation on March 4, 2014, and ended the reporting period with a net asset value of $28.92 on March 31, 2014.

During the reporting period, the highest returns came from Risesun Real Estate Development and China Fortune Land Development, which returned 44.00% and 36.00%, respectively. The worst performers were Neusoft and Zhefu Holdings Group, which returned -19.69% and -16.51%, respectively.

The performance data quoted herein represents past performance and the return and value of an investment in the Fund will fluctuate so that, when redeemed, may be worth less than its original cost. Past performance is no guarantee of future performance and should not be considered as a representation of the future results of the Fund. The Fund's performance assumes the reinvestment of all dividends and all capital gains. Index returns assume reinvestment of dividends and, unlike a Fund's returns, do not reflect any fees or expenses. If such fees and expenses were included in the index returns, the performance would have been lower. Please note that one cannot invest directly in an unmanaged index.

There are no assurances that the Fund will meet its stated objectives.

The Fund's holdings and allocations are subject to change and should not be considered recommendations to buy individual securities.

Returns shown do not reflect the deduction of taxes that a shareholder would pay on Fund distributions or the redemption of Fund shares.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. ORGANIZATION

KraneShares Trust (the “Trust”) is a Delaware Statutory Trust formed on February 3, 2012. The Trust is registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, as an open-end management investment company. As of March 31, 2014, the Trust had six portfolios (three of which were operational). The financial statements herein and the related notes pertain to the KraneShares Bosera MSCI China A Share ETF, KraneShares CSI China Five Year Plan ETF and KraneShares CSI China Internet ETF (each a “Fund” and collectively, the “Funds”). KraneShares Bosera MSCI China A Share ETF is diversified; while the KraneShares CSI China Five Year Plan ETF and KraneShares CSI China Internet ETF are non-diversified. Krane Funds Advisors, LLC (the “Adviser”), a Delaware limited liability company, serves as the investment adviser for the Funds and is subject to the supervision of the Board of Trustees (the “Board”). The Adviser is responsible for managing the investment activities of the Funds, the Funds’ business affairs and other administrative matters. The KraneShares Bosera MSCI China A Share ETF commenced operations on March 4, 2014. The KraneShares CSI China Five Year Plan ETF commenced operations on July 22, 2013. The KraneShares CSI China Internet ETF commenced operations on July 31, 2013.

Shares of each Fund are listed and traded on the NYSE Arca, Inc. Market prices for the Shares may be different from their net asset value (“NAV”). The Funds issue and redeem Shares on a continuous basis at NAV only in large blocks of Shares, typically 50,000 Shares, called Creation Units (“Creation Units”). With respect to the KraneShares CSI China Five Year Plan ETF and KraneShares CSI China Internet ETF, Creation Units will be issued and redeemed principally in-kind for a basket of securities and a balancing cash amount. With respect to the KraneShares Bosera MSCI China A Share ETF, Creation Units will be issued and redeemed principally for cash. To the extent the KraneShares Bosera MSCI China A Share ETF permits in kind consideration for the purchase of a Creation Unit, such Creation Unit will be issued and redeemed for a basket of securities and a balancing cash amount. Shares generally will trade in the secondary market in amounts less than a Creation Unit at market prices that change throughout the day.

The investment objective of each Fund is to seek investment results that generally correspond (before fees, and expenses) to its respective index listed below (each, an “Underlying Index”):

Fund	Index
KraneShares Bosera MSCI China A Share ETF	MSCI China A Index
KraneShares CSI China Five Year Plan ETF	CSI Overseas China Five-Year Plan Index
KraneShares CSI China Internet ETF	CSI Overseas China Internet Index

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The following is a summary of the significant accounting policies followed by the Funds.

USE OF ESTIMATES — The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (“U.S. GAAP”) requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of increases and decreases in net assets from operations during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates, and could have a material impact to the Funds.

SECURITY VALUATION — Securities listed on a securities exchange, market or automated quotation system for which quotations are readily available (except for securities traded on NASDAQ), including securities traded over the counter, are valued at the last quoted sale price on the primary exchange or market (foreign or domestic) on which they are traded (or at approximately 4:00 pm Eastern Standard Time if a security's primary exchange is normally open at that time), or, if there is no such reported sale, at the most recent mean between the quoted bid and asked prices (absent both bid and asked prices on such exchange, the bid price may be used).

For securities traded on NASDAQ, the NASDAQ Official Closing Price will be used. If available, debt securities are priced based upon valuations provided by independent, third-party pricing agents. Such values generally reflect the last reported sales price if the security is actively traded. The third-party pricing agents may also value debt securities at an evaluated bid price by employing methodologies that utilize actual market transactions, broker-supplied valuations, or other methodologies designed to identify the market value for such securities. Debt obligations with remaining maturities of sixty days or less may be valued at their amortized cost, which approximates market value. The prices for foreign securities are reported in local currency and converted to U.S. dollars using currency exchange rates. Prices for most securities held in the Funds are provided daily by recognized independent pricing agents. If a security price cannot be obtained from an independent, third-party pricing agent, the Funds seek to obtain a bid price from at least one independent broker.

Securities for which market prices are not "readily available" are valued in accordance with Fair Value Procedures established by the Board. The Funds' Fair Value Procedures are implemented through a Fair Value Committee (the "Committee") designated by the Board. Some of the more common reasons that may necessitate that a security be valued using Fair Value Procedures include: the security's trading has been halted or suspended; the security has been de-listed from its primary trading exchange; the security's primary trading market is temporarily closed at a time when under normal conditions it would be open; the security has not been traded for an extended period of time; the security's primary pricing source is not able or willing to provide a price; or trading of the security is subject to local government-imposed restrictions. In addition, the Funds may fair value their securities if an event that may materially affect the value of the Funds' securities that traded outside of the United States (a "Significant Event") has occurred between the time of the security's last close and the time that the Funds calculate their net asset value. A Significant Event may relate to a single issuer or to an entire market sector. Events that may be Significant Events include: government actions, natural disasters, armed conflict, acts of terrorism and significant market fluctuations. If the Adviser becomes aware of a Significant Event that has occurred with respect to a security or group of securities after the closing of the exchange or market on which the security or securities principally trade, but before the time at which the Funds calculate net asset value, it may request that a Committee meeting be called. When a security is valued in accordance with the Fair Value Procedures, the Committee will determine the value after taking into consideration all relevant information reasonably available to the Committee.

As of March 31, 2014, the total market value of securities valued in accordance with Fair Value Procedures is as follows:

	Fair Valued Amount	% of Net Assets
KraneShares Bosera MSCI China A Share ETF	$90,145	0.78%
KraneShares CSI China Five Year Plan ETF	4,108	0.13

In accordance with the authoritative guidance on fair value measurements and disclosure under U.S. GAAP, the Funds disclose the fair value of their investments in a hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure the fair value. The objective of a fair value measurement is to determine the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date (an exit price).

Accordingly, the fair value hierarchy gives the highest priority to quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3). The three levels of the fair value hierarchy are described below:

Level 1 — Unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical, unrestricted assets or liabilities that the Funds have the ability to access at the measurement date.

Level 2 — Other significant observable inputs (including quoted prices in non-active markets, quoted prices for similar investments, fair value of investments for which the Funds have the ability to fully redeem tranches at net asset value as of the measurement date or within the near term, and short-term investments valued at amortized cost).

Level 3 — Significant unobservable inputs (including the Funds' own assumptions in determining the fair value of investments, fair value of investments for which the Funds' do not have the ability to fully redeem tranches at net asset value as of the measurement date or within the near term).

Investments are classified within the level of the lowest significant input considered in determining fair value. Investments classified within Level 3 whose fair value measurement considers several inputs may include Level 1 or Level 2 inputs as components of the overall fair value measurement.

For the periods ended March 31, 2014, there have been no significant changes to the Funds' fair valuation methodologies.

FEDERAL INCOME TAXES — It is each Fund's intention to qualify or continue to qualify as a regulated investment company for Federal income tax purposes by complying with the appropriate provisions of Subchapter M of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended and to distribute substantially all of its taxable income and gains to shareholders. Accordingly, no provisions for Federal income taxes have been made in the financial statements.

The Funds evaluate tax positions taken or expected to be taken in the course of preparing the Funds' tax returns to determine whether it is "more-likely-than-not" (i.e., greater than 50 percent) that each tax position will be sustained upon examination by a taxing authority based on the technical merits of the position. Tax positions not deemed to meet the more-likely-than-not threshold are recorded as a tax benefit or expense in the current year. The Funds did not record any tax provisions in the current period. However, management's conclusions regarding tax positions may be subject to review and adjustment at a later date based on factors including, but not limited to, examination by tax authorities (i.e., the last three tax year ends, as applicable), on-going analysis of and changes to tax laws, regulations and interpretations thereof.

As of and during the periods ended March 31, 2014, the Funds did not have a liability for any unrecognized tax benefits. The Funds recognize interest and penalties, if any, related to unrecognized tax benefits as income tax expense in the Statement of Operations. During the period, the Funds did not incur any interest or penalties.

SECURITY TRANSACTIONS AND INVESTMENT INCOME — Security transactions are accounted for on the trade date for financial reporting purposes. Costs used in determining realized gains and losses on the sale of investment securities are based on specific identification. Dividend Income generally recorded on the ex-dividend date. Dividend income for certain issuers headquartered in countries which the Funds invest may not be recorded until approved by the shareholders (which may occur after the ex-dividend date) if, in the judgment of management, such dividends are not reasonably determined as of the ex-dividend date. Interest income is recognized on the accrual basis from the settlement date.

FOREIGN CURRENCY TRANSLATION — The books and records of the Funds are maintained in U.S. dollars. Investment securities and other assets and liabilities denominated in a foreign currency are translated into U.S. dollars on the date of valuation. Purchases and sales of investment securities, income and expenses are translated into U.S. dollars at the relevant rates of exchange prevailing on the respective dates of such transactions. The Funds do not isolate that portion of realized or unrealized gains and losses resulting from changes in the foreign exchange rate from fluctuations arising from changes in the market prices of the securities. These gains and losses are included in net realized and unrealized gains and losses on investments on the Statement of Operations. Net realized and unrealized gains and losses on foreign currency transactions represent net foreign exchange gains or losses from foreign currency exchange contracts, disposition of foreign currencies, currency gains or losses realized between trade and settlement dates on securities transactions and the difference between the amount of the investment income and foreign withholding taxes recorded on the Funds' books and the U.S. dollar equivalent amounts actually received or paid.

DIVIDENDS AND DISTRIBUTIONS TO SHAREHOLDERS — The Funds distribute their net investment income semi-annually. Any net realized capital gains are distributed annually. All distributions are recorded on the ex-dividend date.

CREATION UNITS — The Funds issue and redeem shares ("Shares") at Net Asset Value ("NAV") and only in large blocks of Shares (each block of Shares for a Fund is a Creation Unit or multiples thereof). Prior to September 18, 2013, Purchasers of Creation Units ("Authorized Participants") at NAV paid a standard creation transaction fee of $1,500 per transaction. The fee charged was the same regardless of the number of Creation Units purchased by an investor on the same day. Prior to September 18, 2013, an Authorized Participant who held Creation Units and wished to redeem at NAV would also pay a standard Redemption Fee of $1,500 per transaction to the custodian on the date of such redemption, regardless of the number of Creation Units redeemed that day. As of September 18, 2013, the maximum creation and redemption fees for the KraneShares CSI China Five Year Plan ETF and the KraneShares CSI China Internet ETF were changed to $8,000 and $1,000, respectively. As of March 31, 2014, the KraneShares Bosera MSCI China A Share ETF has a standard creation and redemption fee of $6,000 and a variable fee. These fees are subject to adjustment from time to time by the Adviser.

Except when aggregated in Creation Units, shares are not redeemable securities of a Fund. Shares of a Fund may only be purchased or redeemed by certain Authorized Participants. An Authorized Participant is either (i) a broker-dealer or other participant in the clearing process through the Continuous Net Settlement System of the National Securities Clearing Corporation or (ii) a DTC participant and, in each case, must have executed a Participant Agreement with the Distributor. Most retail investors will not qualify as Authorized Participants or have the resources to buy and sell whole Creation Units. Therefore, they will be unable to purchase or redeem the shares directly from the Fund. Rather, most retail investors will purchase shares in the secondary market with the assistance of a broker and will be subject to customary brokerage commissions or fees.

If a Creation Unit is purchased or redeemed for cash, a higher transaction fee will be charged. The KraneShares Bosera MSCI China A Share ETF generally expects that Creation Units of the Fund issued and redeemed principally for cash. The following table discloses Creation Unit breakdown as of March 31, 2014:

	Creation Unit Shares	Transaction Fee	Value	Redemption Fee
KraneShares Bosera MSCI China A Share ETF ⁽¹⁾	400,000	$18,000	$12,000,000	$ —

Organizational Expenses

All organizational and offering expenses of the Trust were borne by the Adviser and will not be subject to future recoupment. As a result, organizational and offering expenses are not reflected in the statement of assets and liabilities.

Concentration of Risk

Cash at March 31, 2014, is held in time deposits at Brown Brothers Harriman. Amounts may exceed federally insured limits.

3. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

Investment Advisory Agreement

The Adviser is responsible for the day-to-day management of each Fund listed below, and continuously reviews, supervises, and administers the Fund's investment program. The Board of Trustees of the Trust supervises the Adviser and establishes policies that the Adviser must follow in its day-to-day management activities. Pursuant to an investment advisory agreement between the Trust and the Adviser, the Funds below pay the Adviser a fee, which is calculated daily and paid monthly, at the following annual rates, based on a percentage of the average daily net assets of each Fund:

	Management Fee
KraneShares Bosera MSCI China A Share ETF	1.10%
KraneShares CSI China Five Year Plan ETF	0.68%
KraneShares CSI China Internet ETF	0.68%

Bosera Asset Management (International) Co., Ltd. (“Bosera”), an affiliate of the adviser, operating out of Hong Kong, serves as the Co-Adviser to the KraneShares Bosera MSCI China A Share ETF and is responsible for the day-to-day management of the Fund, subject to oversight by the Adviser and the Board of Trustees of the Trust. For the services Bosera provides to KraneShares Bosera MSCI China A Share ETF, the Adviser pays Bosera a fee equal to 50% of the net revenue the Adviser receives from the Fund.

The Adviser and Co-Adviser bear all of their own costs associated with providing these advisory services. As part of its agreement with the Trust, the Adviser has contractually agreed to pay all operating expenses of the Funds, including the cost of index licensing fees, transfer agency, custody, fund administration, legal, audit and other services, except interest expense, taxes, Acquired

3. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS – (continued)

Fund Fees and Expenses, if any, brokerage commissions and other expenses connected with execution of portfolio transactions, expenses of the Independent Trustees (including any Trustees' counsel fees), extraordinary expenses, distribution fees and any expenses paid by the Trust under the distribution plan adopted pursuant to Rule 12b-1 under the 1940 Act and the advisory fee payable to the Adviser.

Sub-Advisory Agreement

Index Management Solutions, LLC serves as the investment sub-adviser to the KraneShares CSI China Five Year Plan ETF and KraneShares CSI China Internet ETF (the "Sub-Adviser"). The Sub-Adviser is responsible for trading portfolio securities on behalf of the KraneShares CSI China Five Year Plan ETF and KraneShares CSI China Internet ETF, including selecting broker-dealers to execute purchase and sale transactions as instructed by the Adviser or in connection with any rebalancing or reconstitution of the Underlying Index, subject to the supervision of the Adviser and the Board of Trustees. For the services it provides to the KraneShares CSI China Five Year Plan ETF and KraneShares CSI China Internet ETF, the Adviser pays the Sub-Adviser a fee, which is calculated daily and paid monthly, at an annual rate of 0.05% on each Fund's daily average net assets up to $50 million; 0.04% on each Fund's daily average net assets on the next $50 million; and 0.03% on each Fund's daily average net assets in excess of $100 million.

Distribution Agreement

SEI Investments Distribution Co. (the "Distributor"), a wholly owned subsidiary of SEI Investments Company and an affiliate of the administrator, serves as the Funds' distributor of Creation Units pursuant to a distribution agreement. The Distributor does not maintain any secondary market in Fund shares.

The Trust has adopted a Distribution and Service Plan ("Plan") pursuant to Rule 12b-1 under the 1940 Act. In accordance with its Plan, each Fund is authorized to pay an amount up to 0.25% of its average daily net assets each year for certain distribution-related activities. For the first twelve months of operations, no fees will be charged by the Distributor under the Plan and the Plan will only be implemented with the approval of the Board of Trustees.

Administrator, Custodian and Transfer Agent

SEI Investments Global Funds Services (the "Administrator") serves as the Funds' Administrator pursuant to an administration agreement. Brown Brothers Harriman & Co. serves as the Funds' Custodian and Transfer Agent pursuant to a Custodian and Transfer Agent Agreement.

4. INVESTMENT TRANSACTIONS

KraneShares Bosera MSCI China A Share ETF ⁽¹⁾	$ —	$ —	$ —
KraneShares CSI China Five Year Plan ETF ⁽²⁾	4,987,122	3,160,263	660,065
KraneShares CSI China Internet ETF ⁽³⁾	73,883,935	—	—

(1) Commenced operations on March 4, 2014.

(2) Commenced operations on July 22, 2013.

(3) Commenced operations on July 31, 2013.

During the period ended March 31, 2014, there were no purchases or sales of long-term U.S. Government securities for the Funds.

5. TAX INFORMATION

The amount and character of income and capital gain distributions to be paid, if any, are determined in accordance with Federal income tax regulations, which may differ from U.S. GAAP. As a result, net investment income (loss) and net realized gain (loss) on investment transactions for a reporting period may differ significantly from distributions during such period. These book/tax differences may be temporary or permanent. To the extent these differences are permanent in nature, they are charged or credited to undistributed net investment income (loss), accumulated net realized gain (loss) or paid-in capital, as appropriate, in the period that the differences arise.

The following differences, primarily attributable to foreign currency, redemptions in-kind, equalization and sales of passive foreign investment companies have been reclassified to/from the following accounts during the fiscal year ended March 31, 2014.

KraneShares Funds	Paid-in Capital	Undistributed Net Investment Income	Accumulated Net Realized Gain (Loss)
KraneShares Bosera MSCI China A Shares ETF	$ —	$(31,455)	$ 31,455
KraneShares CSI China Five Year Plan ETF	676,494	3,946	(680,440)
KraneShares CSI China Internet ETF	—	304	(304)

These reclassifications have no impact on net assets or net asset value per share.

The tax character of dividends and distributions paid during the period ended March 31, 2014 were as follows:

KraneShares Funds	Ordinary Income	Long-Term Capital Gain	Return of Capital	Totals
KraneShares Bosera MSCI China A Shares ETF 2014	$ —	$ —	$ —	$ —
KraneShares CSI China Five Year Plan ETF 2014	—	—	—	—
KraneShares CSI China Internet ETF 2014	67,648	—	—	67,648

5. TAX INFORMATION – (continued)

As of March 31, 2014, the components of tax basis distributable earnings (accumulated losses) were as follows:

	KraneShares Bosera MSCI China A Share ETF	KraneShares CSI China Five Year Plan ETF	KraneShares CSI China Internet ETF
Undistributed Ordinary Income	$ —	$ 17,544	$ 596,577
Qualified Late Year Losses	(39,502)	—	—
Unrealized Appreciation on Investments and Foreign Currency	(430,443)	615,138	2,413,661
Total Distributable Earnings (Accumulated Losses) . . .	$ (469,945)	$632,682	$3,010,238

Under the recently enacted Regulated Investment Company Modernization Act of 2010, the Funds will be permitted to carry forward capital losses incurred in taxable years beginning after December 22, 2010 for an unlimited period. Post-enactment capital losses that are carried forward will retain their character as either short-term or long-term capital losses rather than being considered all short-term as under previous law. As of March 31, 2014 there were no capital losses.

The differences between book and tax-basis unrealized appreciation/(depreciation) are attributable primarily to the tax deferral of losses on wash sales and investments in passive foreign investment companies. The Federal tax cost and aggregate gross unrealized appreciation and depreciation on investments held by the Funds at March 31, 2014 were as follows:

KraneShares Funds	Federal Tax Cost	Aggregated Gross Unrealized Appreciation	Aggregated Gross Unrealized Depreciation	Net Unrealized Appreciation (Depreciation)
KraneShares Bosera MSCI China A Share ETF . . .	$11,937,177	$ 181,839	$ (612,172)	$ (430,333)
KraneShares CSI China Five Year Plan ETF . . .	2,529,072	682,160	(67,022)	615,138
KraneShares CSI China Internet ETF	74,873,392	6,720,415	(4,306,754)	2,413,661

6. CONCENTRATION OF RISKS

As with all exchange traded funds (“ETFs”), shareholders of Funds are subject to the risk that their investment could lose money. The Funds are subject to the principal risks noted below, any of which may adversely affect a Fund’s net asset value (“NAV”), trading price, yield, total return and ability to meet its investment objective. A more complete description of principal risks is included in the prospectus under the heading “Principal Risks”.

Geographic Concentration in China and Hong Kong

Because the Funds concentrate their investments in securities issued in China and Hong Kong, each Fund’s performance is expected to be closely tied to social, political, and economic conditions within China and Hong Kong and to be more volatile than the performance of more geographically diversified funds. These and other factors could have a negative impact on the Funds’ performance and increase the volatility of an investment in the Funds.

Industry Concentration Risk

In following its methodology, each Fund’s Underlying Index from time to time may be concentrated to a significant degree in securities of issuers located in a single industry or a sector. To the extent that an Underlying Index concentrates in the securities of issuers in a particular industry or sector, each Fund will also concentrate its investments to approximately the same extent. By concentrating its investments in an industry or sector, a Fund may face more risks than if it were diversified broadly over numerous industries or sectors. In addition, at times, an industry or sector may be out of favor and underperforms other industries or the market as a whole. Any factors detrimental to the performance of such industry or sector will disproportionately impact a Fund's NAV.

Non-Correlation Risk

Each Fund's return may not match the return of its Underlying Index for a number of reasons. For example, each Fund incurs operating expenses not applicable to the Underlying Index, and incurs costs in buying and selling securities, especially when rebalancing the Fund's securities holdings to reflect changes in the composition of its Underlying Index. In addition, the performance of each Fund and its Underlying Index may vary due to asset valuation differences and differences between each Fund's portfolio and its Underlying Index resulting from legal restrictions, cost or liquidity constraints.

Index Risk

Unlike many investment companies, the Funds do not utilize an investing strategy that seeks returns in excess of each Fund's respective Underlying Index. Therefore, a Fund would not necessarily buy or sell a security unless that security is added or removed, respectively, from its respective Underlying Index, even if that security generally is underperforming.

Market Risk

The trading prices of equity securities and other instruments fluctuate in response to a variety of factors. The Funds NAV and market price may fluctuate significantly in response to such factors. As a result, an investor could lose money over short or long periods of time.

Non-Diversification Risk

The Funds are considered to be non-diversified, which means that it may invest more of their assets in the securities of a single issuer or a smaller number of issuers than if they were a diversified fund. To the extent a Fund invests a significant percentage of its assets in a limited number of issuers, the Fund is subject to the risks of investing in those few issuers, and may be more susceptible to a single adverse economic or regulatory occurrence. As a result, changes in the market value of a single security could cause greater fluctuations in the value of Fund shares than would occur in a diversified fund.

7. OTHER

At March 31, 2014, the records of the Trust reflected that 100% of each Fund's total Shares outstanding were each held by one Authorized Participant, in the form of Creation Units. However, the individual shares comprising such Creation Units are listed and traded on the NYSE Arca, Inc. and a portion thereof have been purchased and sold by persons other than Authorized Participants. Each Authorized Participant has entered into an agreement with the Funds' Distributor.

8. CONTRACTUAL OBLIGATIONS

The Funds enter into contracts in the normal course of business that contain a variety of indemnifications. The Funds' maximum exposure under these arrangements is unknown. However, the Funds have not had prior gains or losses pursuant to these contracts. Management has reviewed the Funds' existing contracts and expects the risk of loss to be remote.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

9. SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

The Funds have evaluated the need for additional disclosures and/or adjustments resulting from subsequent events. Based on this evaluation, no additional disclosures or adjustments were required to the financial statements as of the date the financial statements were issued.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Board of Trustees of KraneShares Trust:

In our opinion, the accompanying statements of assets and liabilities, including the schedules of investments, and the related statements of operations and of changes in net assets and the financial highlights present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of KraneShares Bosera MSCI China A Share ETF, KraneShares CSI China Five Year Plan ETF and KraneShares CSI China Internet ETF (three of the portfolios constituting KraneShares Trust, hereafter collectively referred to as the "Funds") at March 31, 2014, and the results of each of their operations, the changes in each of their net assets and the financial highlights for each of the periods indicated, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. These financial statements and financial highlights (hereafter referred to as "financial statements") are the responsibility of the Funds' management; our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits of these financial statements in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, and evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits, which included confirmation of securities at March 31, 2014 by correspondence with the custodian, provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

APPROVAL OF ADVISORY AGREEMENTS & BOARD CONSIDERATIONS (unaudited)

The Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the “1940 Act”), requires that the initial approval of, as well as the continuation of, each KraneShares Fund’s investment advisory agreement(s) be specifically approved by: (i) the vote of the KraneShares Trust (the “Trust”) Board of Trustees (the “Board”) or by a vote of the shareholders of the Fund; and (ii) the vote of a majority of the Trustees who are not parties to the investment advisory agreement(s) or “interested persons” (as defined under the 1940 Act) of any party to the investment advisory agreement(s) (the “Independent Trustees”), cast in person at a meeting called for the purpose of voting on such approval. In connection with its consideration of such approvals, the Board must request and evaluate, and Krane Funds Advisors, LLC (the “Adviser”) and any sub-adviser are required to furnish, such information as may be reasonably necessary to evaluate the terms of the investment advisory agreements. In addition, the Investment Company Act of 1940 requires the Trust to disclose in its shareholder reports the material factors and the conclusions with respect thereto that formed the basis for the Board’s approval of the Trust’s investment advisory contracts.

At in-person meetings held on September 25, 2013 and October 2, 2013 (the “Meetings”), the Board considered proposals to approve the Investment Advisory Agreement (the “Agreement”) between the Trust and the Adviser and the Investment Sub-Advisory Agreement (the “Sub-Advisory Agreement” and together with the Agreement, the “Agreements”) between the Adviser and Bosera Asset Management (International) Co., Limited (the “Sub-Adviser”), respectively, with respect to the KraneShares Bosera MSCI China A Share ETF, a new series of the Trust (the “New Fund”). At the Meetings, the Board, including a majority of the Trustees who are not considered to be “interested persons” of the Trust (the “Independent Trustees”) under the 1940 Act, approved for an initial two-year period the proposed Agreements with respect to the New Fund, which commenced operations during the period covered by this Report. The Adviser and the Sub-Adviser are sometimes referred to herein as the “Advisers.”

In considering the Agreements, the Board reviewed a variety of information provided by the Advisers relating to the New Fund, the Agreements and the Advisers, including fee and expense information and information regarding the nature, extent and quality of services to be provided by the Advisers under their respective Agreements. The materials provided to the Board included, among other items: (i) information on the New Fund’s advisory fee, which is structured as a unitary fee, and other expenses, including information comparing the New Fund’s proposed fees and expenses to those of comparable funds; (ii) information about the expected profitability of the Agreements to the Advisers; and (iii) a memorandum from legal counsel to the Trust on the responsibilities of the Trustees in considering the approval of investment advisory arrangements, including investment sub-advisory arrangements, under the 1940 Act.

The Board of Trustees, including the Independent Trustees, also considered other matters such as (i) the Advisers’ financial condition; (ii) the Sub-Adviser’s experience in providing advisory services to comparable funds, i.e., equity index ETFs; (iii) the New Fund’s investment objective and strategies; (iv) the Advisers’ investment personnel and operations; (v) the use, if any, of “soft” commission dollars to pay for research and other similar services; (vi) the resources devoted to compliance, generally, and monitoring with regard to the New Fund’s investment policies and restrictions; and (vii) any “fall-out” benefits to the Advisers and their affiliates (i.e., ancillary benefits realized by the Advisers and their affiliates from the Advisers’ relationship with the Trust). Throughout the process, the Trustees were afforded the opportunity to ask questions of and request additional materials from the Advisers, and the Independent Trustees met separately, with Trust counsel, to consider the Agreements.

APPROVAL OF ADVISORY AGREEMENTS & BOARD CONSIDERATIONS (unaudited)

In considering whether to approve the Agreements, the Board of Trustees, including the Independent Trustees, did not identify any single factor as determinative. Individual Trustees may have evaluated the information presented differently from one another, giving different weights to various factors. Matters considered by the Trustees, including the Independent Trustees, in connection with their approval of the Agreements included the factors listed below.

The nature, extent and quality of the services to be provided to the New Fund under the Agreements. The Trustees considered the nature, extent and quality of the services to be provided by the Adviser and the Sub-Adviser to the New Fund and the resources dedicated to the New Fund by the Advisers. The Board considered, among other things, the Advisers' anticipated responsibilities for managing the investment operations of the New Fund, in accordance with its investment objective and policies, and applicable legal and regulatory requirements. The Board focused, in particular, on the importance of the Sub-Adviser's status as a Renminbi Qualified Foreign Institutional Investor ("RQFII"), and its ability to obtain a specific aggregate dollar amount of investment quota from China's State Administration of Foreign Exchange ("SAFE") to enable the New Fund to invest renminbi ("RMB") in the People's Republic of China (the "PRC") for the purpose of investing in China A Shares in the PRC's domestic securities markets ("A Share Quota"). The Board considered that while the Sub-Adviser is a newly registered U.S. investment adviser, the Sub-Adviser and its affiliates have extensive investment advisory experience outside of the U.S., including experience in managing exchange-traded products. The Board also considered the fact that the Sub-Adviser is a subsidiary of the then-fifth largest asset management firm in China and the China Merchants Group, a large well-established state-owned enterprise. With respect to the Adviser, the Board considered the Adviser's role in overseeing the activities of the Sub-Adviser and coordinating the activities of the Trust's other service providers. After reviewing these and related factors, the Board concluded that the nature, extent and quality of the services to be provided were extensive in nature and of high quality and supported the approval of the Agreements.

Performance of the Advisers. The Board noted that the New Fund is new and therefore has no historical performance for the Board to review. As a result, the Board concluded that historical investment performance was not a material factor in the approval of the Agreements for the New Fund. However, following the New Fund's commencement of operations, the Board will evaluate the New Fund's performance in comparison to that of its underlying index and any comparable peer funds.

The costs of the services to be provided and profits expected to be realized by the Advisers and their affiliates from their relationships with the New Fund. The Trustees considered the unitary fee proposed to be charged to the New Fund for advisory services as well as the expected total expenses of the New Fund. This information included comparisons of the New Fund's unitary fee and expected total expenses to those of other comparable funds. The Trustees considered that due in part to the recent ability to invest in China A Shares directly and obtain daily liquidity through the RQFII regulatory regime, there existed only a few comparable U.S. registered funds. In evaluating the New Fund's advisory fees, the Trustees took into account that the Adviser would be paying all of the New Fund's operating expenses from its advisory fee except for certain excluded expenses. The Trustees further considered that the sub-advisory fees for the New Fund would be paid not by the New Fund, but rather by the Adviser out of its advisory fee.

With regard to profitability, the Trustees considered all compensation that would flow, directly or indirectly, to the Advisers and their affiliates, if any, from their relationship with the New Fund, including any benefits derived or to be derived by the Advisers, such as soft dollar arrangements, as well as the cost of services to be provided to the New Fund. The Trustees considered whether the varied levels of compensation and the estimated profitability under the Agreements were reasonable and justified in light of the quality of all services to be rendered to the New Fund by the Advisers. When considering the profitability of the Sub-Adviser with respect to the sub-advisory services it anticipates providing to the New Fund, the Board took into account the fact that the Sub-Adviser is compensated by the Adviser, and not by the New Fund directly, and such compensation with respect to the Sub-Adviser reflects an arms-length negotiation between the Sub-Adviser and the Adviser. Based on this evaluation, the Board concluded that, within the context of its full deliberations, the profitability of the Advisers is reasonable in relation to the quality of the respective services to be provided to the New Fund and supported the approval of the Agreements.

Economies of Scale. The Trustees considered the existence of any economies of scale in the provision of services by the Advisers and whether those economies would be shared with the New Fund through breakpoints in its investment advisory fee or other means, such as expense waivers or limitations. The Trustees noted that the Investment Advisory Agreement does not provide for breakpoints in the New Fund's advisory fee rates as assets of the New Fund increase. The Board took into account the costs of the services to be provided and the estimated profitability to the Adviser and its affiliates of their relationship with the New Fund, as discussed above. The Board also considered the potential effect of the New Fund's growth and size on fees, noting that if the New Fund's assets increase over time, the New Fund may realize economies of scale if assets increase proportionally more than some expenses. The Trustees noted that they intend to continue to monitor fees as the New Fund grows in size and assess whether fee breakpoints may be warranted in the future. After reviewing these and related factors, the Board concluded that the advisory and sub-advisory fee structures were reasonable particularly in view of the fact that the Adviser will pay all of the New Fund's operating expenses under the unitary fee structure, and supported the approval of the Agreements.

The Trustees also considered other factors, which included but were not limited to, the compliance-related resources of the Advisers and potential other benefits to the Advisers, such as the benefits of research made available to the Advisers by reason of brokerage commissions generated by the New Fund's securities transactions or reputational and other indirect benefits. The Trustees considered the possible conflicts of interest associated with these other benefits, and the reporting, disclosure and other processes in place to disclose and monitor such possible conflicts of interest.

Based on their evaluation of all factors that they deemed to be material, including those factors described above, none of which was dispositive in itself and may have been weighed differently by each Trustee, and assisted by the advice of legal counsel, the Trustees, including a majority of the Independent Trustees, concluded that approval of the Agreements would be in the best interests of the New Fund and its shareholders. Accordingly, the Board, and the Independent Trustees voting separately, approved the Agreements for an initial two-year period. The Board's conclusions with respect to the Agreements were as follows: (a) the nature and extent of the services expected to be provided by the Advisers with respect to the New Fund were appropriate; (b) the Advisers' fee for the New Fund and the unitary fee, considered in relation to services expected to be provided, were fair and reasonable; (c) any additional benefits to the Advisers were not of a sufficient magnitude to affect the Board's conclusions; and (d) the Board would consider the Advisers' ability to share any economies of scale with respect to their management of the New Fund after the New Fund has been in operation for a reasonable period of time.

DISCLOSURE OF FUND EXPENSES (unaudited)

All Exchange Traded Funds (“ETF’s”) have operating expenses. As a shareholder of an ETF, your investment is affected by these ongoing costs, which include (among others) costs for ETF management, administrative services, commissions, and shareholder reports like this one. It is important for you to understand the impact of these costs on your investment returns. In addition, a shareholder is responsible for brokerage fees as a result of their investment in the Fund.

Operating expenses such as these are deducted from an ETF’s gross income and directly reduce its final investment return. These expenses are expressed as a percentage of the ETF’s average net assets; this percentage is known as the ETF’s expense ratio.

The following examples use the expense ratio and are intended to help you understand the ongoing costs (in dollars) of investing in your Fund and to compare these costs with those of other funds. The examples are based on an investment of $1,000 made at the beginning of the period shown and held for the entire period.

The table on the next page illustrates your Fund’s costs in two ways:

Actual Fund Return. This section helps you to estimate the actual expenses that your Fund incurred over the period. The “Expenses Paid During Period” column shows the actual dollar expense cost incurred by a $1,000 investment in the Fund, and the “Ending Account Value” number is derived from deducting that expense cost from the Fund’s gross investment return.

You can use this information, together with the actual amount you invested in the Fund, to estimate the expenses you paid over that period. Simply divide your actual account value by $1,000 to arrive at a ratio (for example, an $8,600 account value divided by $1,000 = 8.6), then multiply that ratio by the number shown for your Fund under “Expenses Paid During Period.”

Hypothetical 5% Return. This section helps you compare your Fund’s costs with those of other funds. It assumes that the Fund had an annual 5% return before expenses during the year, but that the expense ratio (Column 3) for the period is unchanged. This example is useful in making comparisons because the Securities and Exchange Commission requires all funds to make this 5% calculation. You can assess your Fund’s comparative cost by comparing the hypothetical result for your Fund in the “Expenses Paid During Period” column with those that appear in the same charts in the shareholder reports for other funds.

NOTE: Because the return is set at 5% for comparison purposes — NOT your Fund’s actual return — the account values shown may not apply to your specific investment.

SUPPLEMENTAL INFORMATION (unaudited)

Net asset value, or “NAV”, is the price per Share at which the Funds issue and redeem Shares. It is calculated in accordance with the standard formula for valuing mutual fund shares. The “Market Price” of the Funds generally is determined using the midpoint between the highest bid and the lowest offer on the stock exchange on which the Shares of the Funds are listed for trading, as of the time that the Funds’ NAV is calculated. The Funds’ Market Price may be at, above or below their NAV. The NAV of the Funds will fluctuate with changes in the market value of their holdings. The Market Price of the Funds will fluctuate in accordance with changes in their NAV, as well as market supply and demand.

Premiums or discounts are the differences (expressed as a percentage) between the NAV and Market Price of the Funds on a given day, generally at the time NAV is calculated. A premium is the amount that the Funds are trading above the reported NAV, expressed as a percentage of the NAV. A discount is the amount that the Funds are trading below the reported NAV, expressed as a percentage of the NAV.

Further information regarding premiums and discounts is available on the Funds’ website at KraneShares.com
