KraneShares Zacks New China ETF (ticker: KFYP)¹

Investment Strategy:

KFYP tracks the Zacks New China Index which takes a smart-beta² approach to provide exposure to companies listed in Mainland China, Hong Kong and the United States whose primary business or businesses are important in the current Five-Year Plan of the central Chinese government. The sectors expected to benefit from the Plan are evaluated and the stocks within each sector are subsequently ranked based on various investment factors, including price, cash flow, free cash flow, momentum and volatility. Based on the foregoing, the top 40 stocks of the index are included in the fund's holdings.

KFYP provides:

- An innovative strategy that offers an "all China" exposure to the "new China" economy.
- Exposure to sectors highlighted in China's Five Year Plan (FYP) such as technology, consumer staples, consumer discretionary, and health care.
- Less emphasis on manufacturing, financials, industrials and heavy materials that defined China's past economic plans.
- Exposure to large cap, mid cap, and small cap Chinese companies trading in Mainland China, Hong Kong and the United States.
- Smart beta² investment strategy focused on sectors/industries highlighted in the FYP.

1. Formerly KraneShares CSI New China ETF
2. Smart beta is an investment style where a manager passively follows an index designed to take advantage of perceived systematic biases or inefficiencies in the market.

ETF shares are not redeemable with the issuing fund other than in large Creation Unit aggregations. Instead, investors must buy or sell ETF Shares in the secondary market with the assistance of a stockbroker. In doing so, the investor may incur brokerage commissions and may pay more than net asset value (NAV) when buying and receive less than net asset value when selling. The NAV of the Fund's shares is calculated each day the national securities exchanges are open for trading as of the close of regular trading on the New York Stock Exchange ("NYSE"), normally 4:00 P.M. Eastern time (the "NAV Calculation Time"). Shares are bought and sold at market price not NAV. Closing price returns are based on the midpoint of the bid/ask spread at 4:00 P.M. Eastern Time (when NAV is normally determined).

Index returns are for illustrative purposes only. Index performance returns do not reflect any management fees, transaction costs or expenses. Indexes are unmanaged and one cannot invest directly in an index.
