

KWEB and Competitor Fund Objectives

KraneShares CSI China Internet ETF (KWEB) seeks to measure the performance of the investable universe of publicly traded China-based companies whose primary business or businesses are in the Internet and Internet-related sectors.

The Invesco China Technology ETF (CQQQ) is based on the FTSE China Incl A 25% Technology Capped Index (Index). The Fund will invest at least 80% of its total assets in securities that comprise the Index as well as American depositary receipts and global depositary receipts based on the securities in the Index. The Index includes constituents of the FTSE China Index and FTSE China A Stock Connect Index that are classified as information technology securities, including China A-shares and China B-shares. The Fund and the Index are rebalanced quarterly.

The Global X MSCI China Communication Services ETF (CHIC) seeks to provide investment results that correspond generally to the price and yield performance, before fees and expenses, of the MSCI China Communication Services 10/50 Index.
