(a) MSCI Emerging Markets ex China Index

The KraneShares MSCI Emerging Markets ex China Index ETF (the "Fund") seeks to provide investment results that, before fees and expenses, correspond generally to the price and yield performance of a specific equity securities index. The Fund's current index is the MSCI Emerging Markets ex China Index (the "Underlying Index").

Emerging markets ex-China equities outperformed broad emerging market equities (including China), as measured by the MSCI Emerging Markets Index, during the period. Emerging markets ex-China benefited from improving regional economies in Latin America and a weaker U.S. dollar.

Material Fund Changes

This is a summary of certain changes to the Fund since April 1, 2025. For more complete information, you may review the Fund’s prospectus, which is available at <https://kraneshares.com/etf/kemx/#documents> or upon request at 1-855-857-2638.

Krane Funds Advisors, LLC (“Krane” or the “Adviser”), the investment adviser to the Fund, entered into an agreement whereby its officers and employees, among others, through KFA Two Holdings, LLC, will acquire a majority interest in the Adviser from China International Capital Corporation (USA) Holdings Inc., a wholly-owned, indirect subsidiary of China International Capital Corporation Limited (the “Transaction”). Consummation of the Transaction will, under the Investment Company Act of 1940, result in the automatic termination of the Fund’s existing investment advisory and, if applicable, sub-advisory agreements. In anticipation of the Transaction, the Board approved new advisory and, if applicable, sub-advisory agreements on terms identical to the existing agreements (other than effective and termination dates), subject to shareholder approval of the new advisory agreement. The new sub-advisory agreement will take effect in reliance on a manager-of-managers exemptive order. To ensure continuity of management pending shareholder approval of the new advisory agreement, the Board also approved interim advisory and, if applicable, sub-advisory agreements, effective upon closing of the Transaction, each with terms substantially identical to the current agreements, to remain in effect for up to 150 days while shareholder approval is sought.
