The KraneShares CSI China Internet ETF seeks to provide investment results that, before expenses and fees, correspond generally to the price and yield performance of the CSI Overseas China Internet Index (the "Underlying Index"), which is designed to measure the performance of the investable universe of publicly traded China-based companies whose primary business or businesses are in the Internet and Internet-related sectors, as defined by the index sponsor, China Securities Index Co., Ltd.

China's internet equities underperformed the broader Chinese equity market, as measured by the MSCI China All Shares Index, due to intense competition in China's E-Commerce industry, which weighed on the margins of large-cap e-commerce firms. Also, geopolitical headwinds, including tariffs, weighed on foreign investor sentiment towards China, further detracting from their performance. However, growth in artificial intelligence and cloud computing services remained strong for many China internet companies during the period.

This is a summary of certain changes to the Fund since April 1, 2025. For more complete information, you may review the Fund’s prospectus, which is available at <https://kraneshares.com/kweb/#fund-documents> or upon request at 1-855-857-2638.

Krane Funds Advisors, LLC (“Krane” or the “Adviser”), the investment adviser to the Fund, entered into an agreement whereby its officers and employees, among others, through KFA Two Holdings, LLC, will acquire a majority interest in the Adviser from China International Capital Corporation (USA) Holdings Inc., a wholly-owned, indirect subsidiary of China International Capital Corporation Limited (the “Transaction”). Consummation of the Transaction will, under the Investment Company Act of 1940, result in the automatic termination of the Fund’s existing investment advisory and, if applicable, sub-advisory agreements. In anticipation of the Transaction, the Board approved new advisory and, if applicable, sub-advisory agreements on terms identical to the existing agreements (other than effective and termination dates), subject to shareholder approval of the new advisory agreement. The new sub-advisory agreement will take effect in reliance on a manager-of-managers exemptive order. To ensure continuity of management pending shareholder approval of the new advisory agreement, the Board also approved interim advisory and, if applicable, sub-advisory agreements, effective upon closing of the Transaction, each with terms substantially identical to the current agreements, to remain in effect for up to 150 days while shareholder approval is sought.
